Statement

First Selectwoman Martha Shoemaker has placed Town of Old Lyme's Land Use Coordinator Eric Knapp on paid administrative leave while the Town conducts an investigation into a private personnel matter. There is no current timeline for completion of the investigation and the town will not be making any further comments regarding the investigation at this time.

Land Use staff will assist residents with Land Use concerns in Mr. Knapp's absence and Zoning Commission business will continue to move forward. Concerns may be brought to the attention of the First Selectwoman's Office.

*Sincerely,
Martha H. Shoemaker*
